

Special Guests at BreyerFest!

Big Horse Productions!

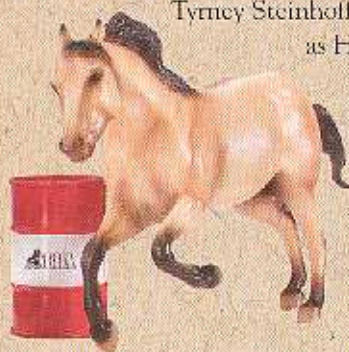

Big Horse Productions creates a new twist in equestrian entertainment by successfully meshing complex acrobatic and vaulting skills on the backs of 18+ hand draft horses. With thundering hooves below, performers defy gravity in every stride as riders take flight at top speed. Big Horse Productions explores the world of equestrian vaulting and adds a splash of drama and flair, offering a unique and breathtaking experience.

Founded in 1997 by Erik Martonovich and Alethea Shelton, Erik and Alethea know a thing or two about vaulting; they each hold six national titles in the sport! Armed with a sturdy foundation in competition vaulting, Erik and Alethea have traveled all over the country performing specialty acts featuring vaulting, Roman Riding, and aerial arts. They even performed with the acclaimed multi-media equestrian touring show, Cavalria! Big Horse Productions knows what it takes to wow an audience—be there to see for yourself!

Meet Hot Shot!

Two young sisters and a lightning-quick buckskin gelding have taken the world of barrel racing for an unforgettable whirlwind ride. Together, sisters Tanya and Tyne Steinhoff and their Quarter Horse, Nate Shilabar, known as Hot Shot, have made barrel racing history. Hot Shot's earnings of more than $230,000 have made him the number one money-earning barrel racing horse of the last decade. Will the youngest Steinhoff sister, Taylor, take Hot Shot even further in his career?

Visit Ellen Feld and Blackjack!

Author of young-adult equestrian novels such as Blackjack, Rusty, and Frosty, Ellen Feld has a passion for horses, especially Morgan horses! Meet Ellen and her Morgan horse, Blackjack, as she reads excerpts from her first novel, Blackjack: Dreaming of a Morgan Horse. In this novel, Ellen takes the reader on a journey about the special bond between a black Morgan horse and a 15-year-old girl, Heather Richardson. Inspired by her own horses, Feld weaves life's lessons on taking care of horses into her novels by drawing from her knowledge and experience of owning Morgan horses and showing in Saddleseat, Reining, Hunter Pleasure, Driving, Barrel Racing, and Western Pleasure.

Stay tuned for more guests to be announced!

